*I*n these times of turmoil, many countries are on the verge of destruction. At each other's throats and ready to explode at any opportunity, they are making the whole world uneasy. Even our geographical environs are in chaos. Floods, famine, volcanic eruptions and earthquakes have mirrored the vast unrest of the peoples of the world. This ferment, however, isn't felt within the halls of East Longmeadow High School because of Robert Hamel, Vice-Principal.

We, the class of 1986, dedicate this book to the man who keeps that delicate balance between chaos and precision. The harmony that is maintained is a direct result of his dedication to order and discipline.

The Cinderella Story

1985 was a magical year for East Longmeadow football. The Spartan gridmen, led by captains Kevin Handzel and Rich Tullie, and a score of veteran seniors, finished at 8-2, second place in the Suburban League. Winning was contagious for the Spartan squad. After dropping the opener to superbowl champion, Palmer, the team, spurred by Coaches Modzelewski, Conlin and Moge, romped through eight weeks of victory. Minnechaug, Northhampton and South Hadley fell before them. Standing undefeated in the League, the Spartans faced a Thanksgiving Day showdown with Longmeadow for a superbowl berth. Although not much went well for the red and grey that afternoon, nothing can take away from the Cinderella season that electrified E.L. fans.

The team deserves much credit for the special chemistry that made the season outstanding. To be commended above all is senior Ed Leahy, who accepted his season-ending injury with class, and had enough pride to be out on the field every day encouraging his team. That's special.

What now Coach?

Kevin keeps them fired up.

Field Hockey

Another strenuous practice

The 1985 field hockey team had an excellent season. With the strong leadership of Coach Wilk and the support of co-captains Kelly Gorman (MVP) and Sue Drinkwater, the Spartans ended with a final record of 8-5-1.

Making it to the preliminaries of the Western Mass. tournament, the hockey team was defeated by South Hadley. Through team effort and support and great coaching, East Longmeadow dominated the game. Tina McKenney scored early to put the Spartans ahead 1-0. With 4:35 left, however, Hadley slammed an unexpected shot into EL's goal. With the score tied at the end of the game, East Longmeadow went into two ten minute over-times; not to score, unfortunately. As the score was still tied, both teams had five chances to score by taking penalty shots. Time ran out; Hadley won. A sad game it was, indeed, for E.L. Seniors Jill Hulton, Tina McKenney, Kelly Gorman, and Sue Drinkwater played spectacularly in this game and throughout the season.

Next season looks promising as upcoming Seniors include: Kerry Kryznowek, Pauline Ferreria, Anita Reuter, and Karen Gondela.

The Boys' Varsity soccer team, had a good start, but once again had a disappointing season, with a record of 2-7-7. Even though the season's record was not the best, the real story is that the team lost most games by just one goal. The three captains Joe Panzetti, Mike Hulett, and Jamie White made every minute count even while injured. It wasn't that they didn't try, or didn't practice, it just wasn't their time.

(Third row) Coach Ulm, Cheryl Alleman, Jen Quinn, Paivi Estovirta, Kelly O'Hara, Carolyn Mayer, Leslie Frigo, Mary Scordino, Aimee Loiselle, Barbara Springer, Lisa Mozden.

Another year passed and with time the Girls' Varsity soccer team got it together. The season's record was 6-9-3, certainly a jump from last year's 2-14 record. The team improved under the leadership of co-captains Karen Kenney, Tina Smith, and Tracy Cardinale - all three encouraging the Spartans through conditioning and team meetings.

The highlight of the season was, without a doubt, Spartans over Chicopee High, 5-2. Hours of practice suddenly paid off as the Spartans used teamwork and ruthlessness to down the formidable Pacers.

With Juniors Laurel Redington their key defenseman and Diane Giorgini their leading scorer, next year's Varsity team should be a threatening force.

When is this game gonna end?

Abbot and Costello

A family affair

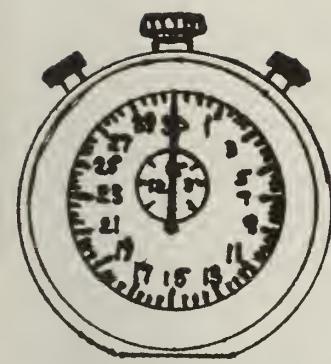

Winning hurts

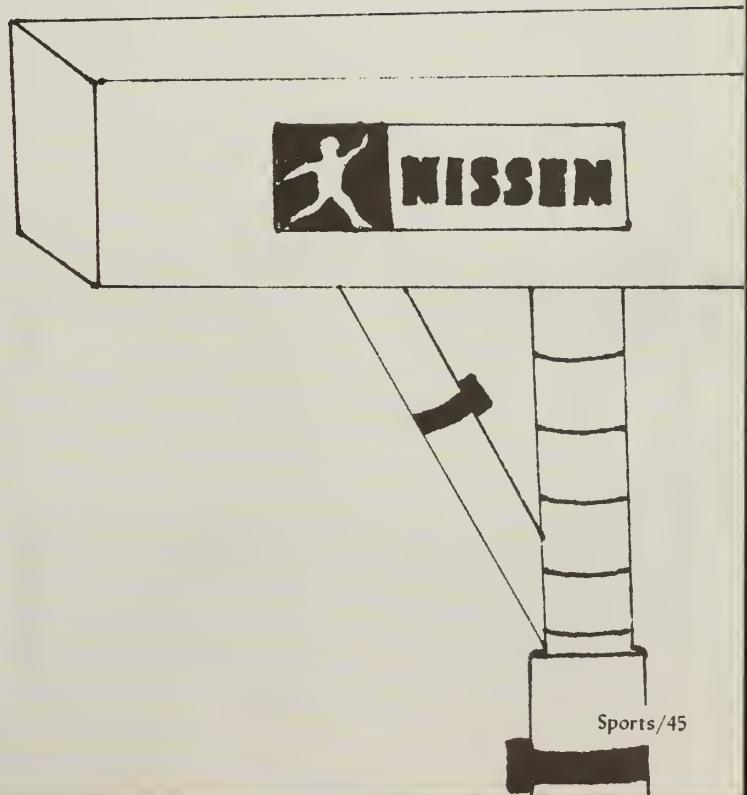

Only two more miles

The Boys' Cross Country team finished its season with a 3-7 record. With no seniors and only a handful of veteran runners, the harriers' record was not surprising. The team was led by Rick Hafey, Captain Jim White and Dennis Warner. Other top runners include Mike Cavanaugh, Mike Harrigan, who returned after a season of leisure, and newcomers Jim "Boz" Bosman, and Adam Knight. All runners improved their times over the course of the season. Coach Calabrese is looking forward to an especially good '86 with the entire team returning.

Gymnastics

Times of strength . . .

Is it superwoman or superglue?

46/Sports

The Girls' Gymnastics Team gave a good, positive effort but fell short of their potential with a disappointing record of 0-12. Consisting mostly of freshman and sophomores, this year's team lacked experience with many of the girls competing for their first time. The all-around was led by Senior Captain Kristen Slate, who qualified for Western Mass. Championships on floor and uneven bars and averaged 28 points per meet. The second all-around was Sophomore Corinne Kane who also qualified for Western Mass. Championships on floor and uneven bars and averaged 28 points per meet. The second all-around was Sophomore Corinne Kane who also qualified for Western Mass. on the balance beam.

Time ran out in 1985 for the girl gymnasts, but strong prospects for next year are on the horizon. Judging from their performances this year, watch out for these agile gymnasts: Juniors, Christiana Brown, Beth Ann Towsley, Corinne Kane, Amy Meccia, and Traci Wynn as well as Sophomores, Robin Kimball, Jennifer Potvin, Melanie Milroy, Dawn Mastodonato, Allison Houghton, and Renee Fortune.

Although injuries and weaknesses played a major part in the season's defeat, the confidence and determination of the girls kept their performances respectable. Next year there will be more muscle to vault from.

Missing: Coach Balog, Michelle Martin.

The swimmin' women of ELHS piloted by Coach Balog and captains Kathy Cleavall and Tina Smith strove with effort and spirit to splash into the victory lane.

Seniors Jill Hulton and Kathy Cleavall swam their hearts out while strong performances were clocked by juniors Michelle Martin and Leslie Gelinas. Nicolle Gebo and Jessica Smit fly(ed) and free style (d) through the water with panache. Keep your periscopes trained on Chris Brown and Erica Turpie in '87-They're churning up a storm.

The divers, instructed by Miss Kerr, had an equally successful season. Not surprisingly, hard-working Tina Smith and Christiana Brown dunked into Western Mass. positions.

"You have to work harder!"

Missing: Bill Trudeau.

The Boys Swim, in the 1985-1986 season, faced the challenge of rebuilding a respectable team. Under the guidance of Coach Bolles, this was achieved. Having only two senior swimmers, Co-captain Bill Trudeau and John Manarite, the teams' record of 4-8-1 offers hope of a very good season next year. Returning top swimmers include Co-captain Jim White, Jeremy Shurtleff, Brian Kenyon, Mike Cavanaugh, and Mike Hallett. Also aiding the squad were freshmen sensations Sean Humphries and Greg Harvey. A strong force is expected for next year with 24 returning swimmers.

In diving, Miss Kerr can celebrate because all of her crew will be returning. Gennady Zac, Brian Kowalczyk, Tony Larocca, and Paul Brideau make up this high-flying boys diving team.

"Come on in - the water's great."

The Boys' Basketball team surprised many on their way to a successful season. Under the guidance of first-year coach, Doug Pearson, the team was able to upset many of the area's top teams. Led by the strong inside play of Senior captains Bob Arsenault and Dan Croken as well as the high scoring of senior Chris DeCarlo and juniors Pete Maruca and Mike Lawless, the Spartans battled for first place most of the year. The team also received strong support from sophomore sensations Chris Maxim and Evan Proulx who came on at the end of the year to help the Spartans head to the play-offs.

The crowds' enthusiasm was raised by the many close games that the Spartans were in. Among these games, the most memorable included the stunning upset of highly ranked Commerce, a heart-breaking overtime loss to Minnechaug, and a surprising one-point victory over South Hadley.

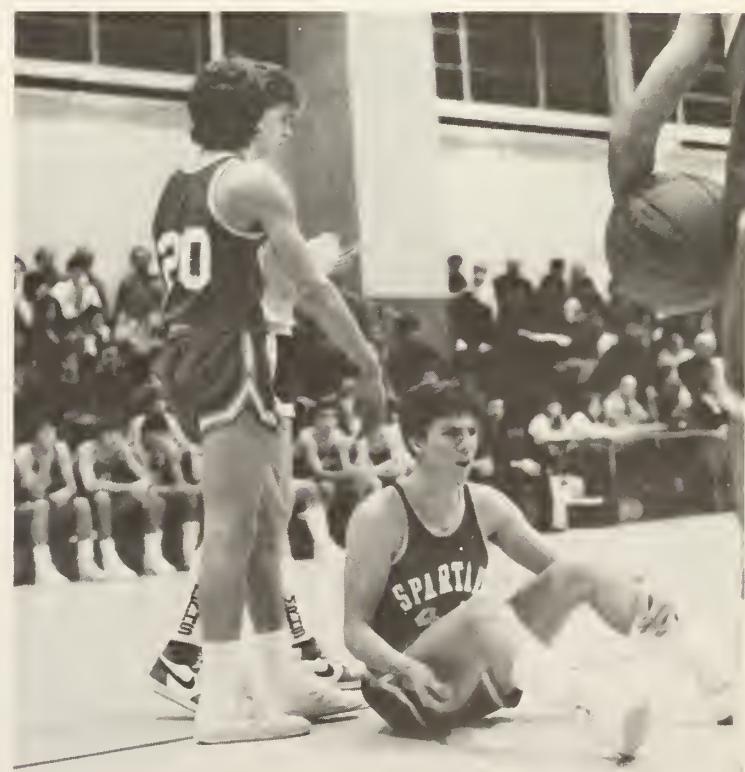

With capable juniors Greg Frigo and Craig Gay waiting in the wings, the Spartans should continue their winning tradition into next year.

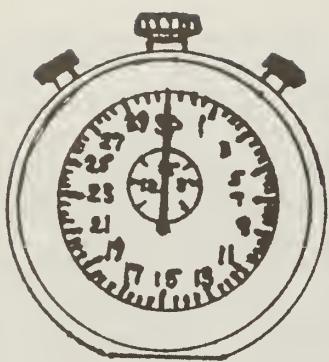

Croke grabs another one.

Did you see that?

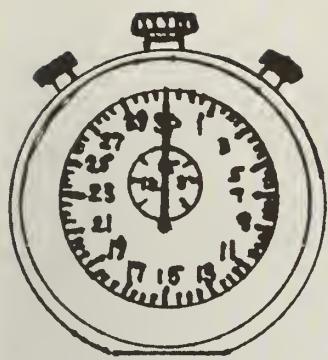

Anticipation

With their shoes pointed in the direction of the tournament, the girls Varsity team must win three out of their next five games. Led by four seniors, Sue Drinkwater, Jill Lundberg, Karen Kenney, and Becky Zumbruski, they will not stop dribbling until they make the tournament. Coach Czajkowski and league leading scorer, Laurel Redington will surely fulfill their objective - a post season appearance. Underclassmen helping out now and in the future are sophomores Erin Lundberg, Beth Drinkwater, Leslie Frigo, Carolyn Mayer, and juniors Karen Gondela and Dawn McDonald. They are really psyched out for the rest of the season.

Let the good times roll

East Longmeadow Spartan wrestlers had a great 1986 season, finishing 6-5 overall and second in division II. As bout followed bout it was obvious that the Spartans had a clutch of talented wrestlers. Led by senior captains Kevin Handzel, Scott Humphries, and Bob Mazzariello the team expended a great effort. Other hardworking seniors, Marc Cunningham and Dan Fazio, were very helpful pulling their weight. The team was totally dedicated with Juniors Chris Turnberg, Tony Maestrone, Brian Donohue, TJ Manerite, Mike Sawyer and Bruce Huntley all turning out great performances. Sophomores Bill Laplante and Jason Duffy both inspired the team with undefeated seasons. The upcoming talent as well as the coaching expertise of Head Coach Mazzariello and Assistant coach Hoffman should keep this team pinning for years to come.

Pray for Playoffs

My place or yours?

Our best defense is our offense.

The skate to the playoffs seemed to crack at every stride. The early season saw the Spartans slide by pre-season favorites, Ludlow 6-0, and with the flame lit they beat the always tough Greenfield 6-2. The first two lines each had six goals and one scored against. What balance! In two quick games, the "Upstart Spartans" were labeled the team to beat.

A couple of bad breaks and a ski trip saw the Spartans lose the next three. They finished the first round with a record of 4-3-1. The Spartans were back in it, considering they never lost a game as a full unit. The playoffs seemed academic, but academics struck, leaving the Spartans with 17 skaters.

Captains Brian Fazio and Joe Scibelli led the team and challenged the league leaders in scoring. This potent duo was often covered so closely that teams forgot about the underrated pair of Brian Burke and Mike Cinton. Paul Romanko and Kevin Kennedy will put the puck in next year, hopefully, along with Larry Bean, Dean Lomoscolo, Mike Murphy, and Fitzie.

Defense, "Best in W.Mass", played exceptionally well behind seniors Darren Barnes, Darren Kryznowek, junior Dino Marafioti, and sophomore Bob Ranaldi. Gary Peterson, a freshman, should be All W. Mass as a senior as he stopped whatever slipped by the "Red Curtain Defense".

How good could this team have been? The best in Western Mass.

Chunk says, "Follow your nose."

*A*s Schools Match Wits is led by the four regulars: Chris Kaiser, Rebecca Allen, Mike Harttree, and Ken Ostrander. On Saturday nights at 7:30, Channel 22 is taken over by the East Longmeadow team. Rebecca Allen controls the topics of Literature and mythology. History and geography are steered by Kaiser and Ostrander. Harttree contributes to the subjects of science and vocabulary.

A victory of 175-25 is an example of the four members working together with alternates Dawn Kahle and Jill Hulton, all under the guidance of Coach Carey. This joint effort has brought the victorious team to the playoffs against Hampshire Regional.

The Student Council faithfuls met every Tuesday X-Block in the never ending search for school spirit. The Halloween Dance, which was the most profitable dance ever, initiated the year by bringing the school year together as ONE. The bonfire was brought inside the school to create the first successful pep rally in years. The main goal this year was to enhance the Spartan Spirit. The Council feels that the pride in good ole' E.L.H.S. from years past has come back again.

Pasta, Saurkraut, Finnish Meatballs, and Peach Pips

Dear E.L.

'85/'86 was "THE BEST", something I always wanted to do, and it's been great. It's bigger than the boonies I expected.

Thanks for your friendliness, your "Hi's" made us feel real welcome. For all those who mocked my accent (what accent?), come visit me someday we'll see who has the accent! Not to mention those who doubted my Peach Pips ... My house is open if you come my way.

Gill Clarke

Hi E.L.H.S.

It was really something! It started with: "HELP! I can't understand!" But you helped me to broke the ice, and now I would say WOW! So many things I enjoy in your school: especially you guys!

Want to thank you ALL for this awesome year in your awesome school!

See you later, love,
Paivi

I want to thank all the teachers for their understanding, sympathy, and patience. "Thank you" to all the nice people in the office, to the Principal and Mr. Camp, who have done everything they could (and more!) to help me solve my small, medium, and large problems.

great thank you to all the friends I've found in this school, for their patience in dealing with my language, my up-n-down personality. I appreciated it all.

Lisa Mezzani

Hi E.L.H.S.!

This year was "AWESOME"!

I want to thank everybody in this school who made this year one of the best and most exciting I ever had. It was great to be here, to be part of so many activities, to have fun with the others, to make new friends and to be in real American life!

I will never forget you and hope to come back and visit you in the future and, of course, come to Germany.

Thanks so much.

Love,
Trish

Room 205

Business was brisk and lively in Homeroom 205 this year. Mrs. Barnshaw, the most recent addition to the math department has invigorated the yearbook fund-raisers with new ideas and established new methods to interest prospective advertisers in Aegis. Mrs. B's system of rewards or losses has roused both the feeling of responsibility and the competitive spirit and Aegis profited. The business staff has jingled and jangled into 205 daily, piling up the money, doing a wonderful job.

3rd. row (L-R) Mike Myers, Donna Rogers, Cathy Impoco, Dina Mozden, Laura Perella, Lisa Griswold, Jane Pagnoni. 2nd. row (L-R) Sue Dudley, Kris Monte, Martine LaPlante, Beth Harrington, Justine Carotenuti, Tina McKenney, Phil Marafioti, Kelly O'Brien.

1st. row (L-R) Linda Dorey, Drew Skrowback, Sam Rice, Curtis Picard, Kim Darney, Kelly Feathler, Brenda Lyons, Julie Briones, Denise Arlen.

The Time Machines

The deadlines and time limits continued in Room 204, regardless of the seasons. The time from May until February, from Thanksgiving, Christmas, through to Ground Hog's Day passes in seconds. In the midst of all the commotion one could always hear Mrs. Lynch saying, "We have 20 more pages to be done by tomorrow." Never fear . . . the elves always came through.

We also had activities outside our normal havoc. These included our first annual Christmas decorating party and our X - Block Christmas film festival which ran a total of 110 minutes.

Now that it's time we bid our farewell, we'd just like to say that for all you do, this book's for you.

For Past, Present, and Future Times

Time is the measure of all eternity living today—not in the past or future—is the key to using time wisely. Of course we battled against time in our constant struggle to meet deadlines and with Mrs. Lynch's inexhaustible help we were usually able to do it. In putting this book together, we hope that we have captured the good and memorable times of our years here.

The Best of Times

"The best thing that happened to me hasn't happened yet."

"I decided what I want to do with my life."

"Guidance messed up-I have six studies in one day."

"I'm going to Disney World for the first time."

"I passed English the first half of the year."

"I got the winning touchdown against Northampton."

"I was editor for the yearbook."

"I broke up with my boyfriend."

"I beat the chick next to me in a swim meet."

"I haven't failed any courses yet."

"I'm going to graduate- I think."

"Meeting her."

"Every morning when I pick Brian Burke up for school."

"I made high honors."

"Going to Florida."

"I bought my own car."

"Walking on ledges."

"Making Bay State Games."

"Going to England."

"Playing leapfrog during lunch."

"Getting accepted at the college of my choice."

"Losing the Thanksgiving Day Game."

"Leaving ELHS behind- who knows when

I'll see

everyone again."

"I got fired from my job."

"I got fined 50¢ from the library for an overdue book."

"I got a rip in my brown corduroys."

"Sold my first car- it was monumental."

"Got stuck in the snow for three hours."

"I've had so many problems with my little car."

"I was editor for yearbook."

"I still have my braces on."

"I didn't get accepted at the college of my choice."

"I dyed my hair and no one else liked it."

"I still have to take the bus."

"Seniors still have to take swimming in gym."

"The Amherst hockey game in my Junior year."

"Crashing Dad's car."

"Having STCC send my application back."

"Missing the bus."

"Getting taken off the program."

"Using up my last free tardy."

Dr. Drinkwater - Superintendent of Schools

New Ideas

When is a high school more than a high school?

A school that opens its doors to include a day school for the very young - and community college facilities for the older student - has unlimited potential.

How did this happen?

Innovative thinking by Dr. Drinkwater, principals and teachers are pointing East Longmeadow students toward tomorrow. We're changing.

Mr. Cannone - Principal

New Ways

The process of growth and change has been met with vigorous action by Mr. Cannone. New, diversified courses and intensified and tightened requirements have challenged students to succeed in their world. Their principal is leading the way.

Time

Time is the measured or measurable period during which an action, process or condition exists or continues. It is the duration of an event. The event can be as short as a fifty yard dash or as long as a lifetime. Time is the basic dimension in our lives. Everything we do is related to time. In our daily lives we have: lunchtime, noontime, suppertime, partytime and bedtime. Time also plays a major role in sports and has a great influence in all contests. We can have our best time, worst time, time out or overtime. Although most lives are a race against the clock, the most important thing is to make the most of our time.

The Cheerleading Squad made 1985-6 outstanding. The girls brought the art of cheering into the modern world, placing second in the regional competition. (The only competition they ever used to have was the band.) The girls placed 70th. out of a judgement field of 260.

This year Beth Harrington and Angel Castonguay were co-captains, while Coach Hylander supplied the necessary Tennessee maps.

Let's hear it for the girls!!!!

Congratulations to Nicole Bartolucci, Coach Hylander, Beth Harrington, Silvana Cuomo, Angela Castonguay, Karen Tenggren, Tracy Ariel, Christine Rosati, Carri Cabrini, Christine Bouchard.

Stopped by neither rain nor sleet, nor the icy winds of December, the Cheerleaders are always ready to go.

thanks for the memories

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to this Separation. We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain Unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and upholding such a Constitution, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress Assembled, do, in the Name and by the Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political Connection between them and the British Crown, and between them and Great Britain, should be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of Right do.

Done at Philadelphia, July 4, 1776.
